Here are a few ways
Congressman Rice can help you.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

If you need information on financial assistance for a small business or want to find out how pending legislation may impact you and your business, please contact one of Congressman Rice’s offices listed on this mailer. Congressman Rice’s office can also help provide guidance and information on procurement procedures for businesses seeking to do work with the federal government.

ASSISTANCE WITH FEDERAL AGENCIES

If you are having trouble with your Social Security, Medicare, veterans benefits, disability benefits, securing a passport, or need help with any federal agency, Congressman Rice’s office can help. Please contact either the Grand Strand or Pee Dee regional office for assistance.

VISITING WASHINGTON, D.C.

Residents of South Carolina’s Seventh District who are visiting the D.C. area can call Congressman Rice’s Washington, D.C. office to reserve passes to some of the most popular attractions in our nation’s capital. Congressman Rice’s office can also arrange for a free tour for you and your family of the U.S. Capitol, as well as gallery passes to view the House and Senate in session so you can see firsthand how important legislation is debated in Congress.

SEVENTH DISTRICT | SOUTH CAROLINA
CONGRESSIONAL UPDATE FROM WASHINGTON, D.C.

Congressman Rice tours the Georgetown Port with city and county officials to review ongoing projects.

Congressman Rice meets with veteran constituents at a Veterans Symposium recognizing the 50th anniversary of the Vietnam War.

Over the past year, I have been busy in Washington, D.C. working effectively for you. Check out some of the highlights:

- Traveled to Texas to see firsthand the crisis at our nation’s Southern Border
- Hosted U.S. Department of Education Secretary Betsy DeVos and showcased workforce development programs in the Seventh District
- Encouraged leaders at U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and U.S. Office of Management and Budget to release $157 million of mitigation funding related to Hurricane Matthew and the 2015 Floods to the state of South Carolina
- Secured $72.075 million in disaster relief funding to help South Carolinians recover from Hurricane Florence
- Convened the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the South Carolina Floodwater Commission, the South Carolina Disaster Recovery Office and the South Carolina Emergency Management Division with local officials and community members to discuss disaster relief and mitigation projects
- Secured $3 billion for our nation’s farmers to help offset losses from recent natural disasters, including Hurricane Florence
- Chaired the Federal Funding Taskforce for the South Carolina Floodwater Commission and contributed my solutions in the report to the Governor
- Hosted a Grants Seminar in Marion County on federal grant opportunities available to Seventh District businesses and organizations
- Connected students with opportunity at the Dillon Inland Port at our Education Summit with technical colleges, high school administrators, and businesses
- Hosted the Coastal and Pee Dee Economic Development Summit to evaluate economic development improvements and plan for future projects
- Honored Vietnam Veterans at a Veterans Symposium to recognize the 50th Anniversary of the Vietnam War
- Responded to over 25,000 pieces of constituent mail
- Spent more than 175 hours hosting Mobile Offices with my team throughout the Grand Strand and Pee Dee
- Heard from constituents at 13 different town hall events held throughout the Seventh District
- Cut through the federal bureaucracy and helped constituents with more than 925 cases
- Returned nearly $100,000 of taxpayer money from my office budget, totaling more than $797,000 in savings over my seven years in office
